

There's a raffle underway at the Museum!

This beautiful cedar hope chest is filled with treasures that have been donated just for this raffle. Most of them will remain a mystery, but we'll expose a typical one each week, just so you know the overall value is tremendous, and the items will tickle any winner.

Where will you put
this beautiful chest
in your home?

The "secret" items are guaranteed to be of interest to all ages and gender, many have practical use, most are collector's items, and none are junk.

Tickets cost:

$1 1 ticket

$5 6 tickets

$20 25 tickets

The first item to be exposed was an antique set of pre-WWI binoculars

...

Today we exposed a beautiful mystic pendant, set in 14K gold, an item to be "used" rather than simply displayed!

"You gotta be in it, to win it!", so get your tickets at the Museum on Sunday (12-5), or anytime you see one of our docents there, hard at work!
